The House met at 2:00 p.m. and was called to order by Mr. Speaker Murray.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by Reverend Bill Griffith, Guest Chaplain Minister of Young Adults Radnor Baptist Church, Nashville, Tennessee, and requested that the following prayer be spread on the Journal.

Our Father - Who art in Heaven, - we know that You have plans for us - and the power to see them into fruition. - Almighty God, - give the members of this legislative body a knowledge of Your Will - for this state. - let them remember - that they serve a public trust - beyond personal gain and glory. - may each member see - that no state - including Tennessee - lives for itself alone, - but is responsible to you - for the peace, - and for the well-being - of all it's citizens - thru Christ Jesus Our Lord. - Amen
